WELCOME TO CROATIA, THE LAND OF BEAUTY & DIVERSITY!

Unique in so many ways, Croatia has roots extending from ancient times and a great cultural richness telling us of its tempestuous history from the Roman era, the Renaissance, the Baroque (period) and the Ottoman conquests right up to the present day which are exceptionally appealing to all those who visit the country. If we add the cultural heritage, the amazing natural beauty, the 8 national parks, 11 nature reserves and the numerous heritage sites under UNESCO's protection, Croatia truly becomes one of the MUST visit countries.

The home of the necktie, the parachute (Faust Vrancic), the torpedo (Ivan Lupis), the mechanical pencil (Slavoljub Penkala), the world's fastest electric car (Rimac Automobili), the dalmatian dog, Marco Polo, the second longest stretch of defensive walls in Europe (Ston), the smallest cathedral (the Church of the Holy Cross), the oldest arboretum (Arboretum Trsteno) in the world and the birthplace of great athletes (Goran Ivanisevic, Janica Kostelic, Davor Suker, Luka Modric etc.) is waiting to be explored!

Set sail for your dream journey! Enjoy this magical land of thousand islands!

DUBROVNIK

Place of embarkation.

The crown jewel of the Croatian Adriatic is the city of Dubrovnik, studded with mediaeval walls that you simply mustn't bypass during your navigation of the Croatian south. Dubrovnik is one of the most prominent tourist destinations in the Mediterranean, known also as the Pearl of the Adriatic. In 1979, the city of Dubrovnik joined the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites.

LOKRUM

Cruise from Cavtat to Dubrovnik. Anchor in front of the Old Town of Dubrovnik. Enjoy an afternoon swim and walk across the island.

An uninhabited island situated in front of the Old Town of Dubrovnik is a perfect place to relax and escape the midday heat of the city. The history of island cannot be told without its legends. According to one of the legends, Richard the Lionhearted was shipwrecked after returning from the crusades and safely ashore on Lokrum.

MLJET

Cruise to scenic Polace Bay. Take a dip in the crystal clear sea and start exploring one of 8 National Parks in Croatia.

The island of Mljet is known as Croatia's greenest island, with lush vegetation, and crystal clear sea. The Mljet National Park includes the western part of the island of Mljet with two deep bays - Large and Smal Lake - and in the middle of Big Lake you can visit a Benedictine monastery from the 12th century. The Cave of Odysseus in the Mljet National Park can be reached by a small boat or by swimming, and allegedly Odysseus himself found shelter in it after being shipwrecked.

KORCULA

Continue to cruise to the Island of Korcula. Admire the Old Town of Korcula, visit Marco Polo's stomping grounds and taste one of the famous Croatian wines - Posip.

As the historical heart of the island of the same name, the city of Korcula is one of the best preserved medieval towns in the Mediterranean. The original Greek settlers used to call the island Korkyra Melania (Black Korcula) after the dense pine-woods on the island.

HVAR

Continue your cruise to the sunniest place in Croatia - the Island of Hvar, that offers both peace and tranquility & a great choice of nightclubs and bars.

When we think of Hvar we picture the island with rich vegetation of palms, aloes, pine trees, laurel, rosemary and lavender. It is the sunniest island in Croatia, boasting not less than 2.724 hours of sunshine per year. The southwestern side of the island of Hvar is bordered by the romantic string of 'Pakleni otoci' (Resin Islands); a cluster of islands, islets and cliffs, just few of them inhabited. They are perfect to explore with a boat, with so many different inlets and beaches. In the last couple of years, Hvar has become one of the most popular party destinations in Europe.

BRAC

Continue your cruise to the Island of Brač. Visit Zlatni Rat (Golden Horn); one of the most spectacular beaches in Croatia.

Covered in pine forest, lovely olive groves and vineyards, Brač is another attractive island for yacht charterers to visit. Bol is the oldest coastal settlement on the island of Brač. It exists in the solitude of the southern landscape, and stretches few kilometres along the coast. The sea in front of it is crystal clear, transparent waves resemble a cut crystal. Bol has many beautiful beaches. To the west from Bol lies the beach Zlatni rat (Golden Horn) one of the largest and most beautiful beaches of the Adriatic.

SOLTA (Maslenica)

Continue your cruise to Solta, where you will stay overnight.

The island of Solta is a small island located near the town of Split, one of the most popular tourist destinations on the Adriatic. Although Solta is the closest island to Split, it has remained a place of pristine natural beauty. It is a place where you can find peace and tranquility wherever you wander. It is believed that Greeks, in the 4th century BC named the island Olynthia which means 'immature fig', the Romans renamed Solta in Solent - the island in the sun. For most of the history Solta was a wealthy province of Split where the Roman Emperor Diocletian had his summer residence and a private fish farm. Remains of Solta's Roman, Gothic and other historical periods are everywhere, but you need to take the time to see behind the picturesque and charming to find them.

Continue your cruise to the Island of Kaprije, one of the largest islands of the Sibenik archipelago.

Kaprije is a rare oasis full of clean air which seems to have remained trapped in the past far from the modern world. The island is car free, so it is a suitable destination for those who want to get away from city noise and give themselves a full holiday.

The port of Kaprije has developed a reputation of offering a safe and pleasant berth for superyachts, whose yachtsmen can explore the unspoilt coves of the island, or simply unwind in the beautiful port.

Continue your cruise to Skradin, a charming little coastal town with one of the most beautiful marinas in Croatia. The town is situated at the entrance to the National Park Krka.

Skradin is a small town situated about 15km from Sibenik, along the river Krka. It is one of the oldest Croatian towns which has begun writing its history since the time of the Illyrians. It received its name during the Roman rule – Scardona. After the Roman Scardona was ruined, Croats rebuilt the town and named it Skradin. In the vicinity of town there are numerous attractive site: waterfalls Skradin and Roski waterfall, as well as a small Franciscan island Visovac.

6.

KORNATI

Continue your cruise to NP Kornati, often mentioned as 'nautical paradise'...sail through the 89 unforgettable islands, islets and reefs.

The Kornati national park is often mentioned as "nautical paradise" in tourist publications. And really, sailing through 89 unforgettable islands, islets and reefs you will taste all of your nautical skills.

ZADAR

Place of disembarkation.

Cruise to Zadar, where you will stay overnight. Take an evening stroll along the streets of European best destination in 2016. Have a dinner in one of the finest restaurants in the town.

Zadar is a town situated on the Adriatic Sea. It is the centre of Zadar County and the wider northern Dalmatian region. It is a city with a rich history dating from the prehistoric times to the present day. Zadar gained its urban structure in Roman times; during the time of Julius Cezar and Emperor Augustus, the town was fortified and the city walls with towers and gates were built. During the Middle Ages Zadar fully gained its urban aspect, which has been maintained until today. Historical importance and gastronomic offer make Zadar to be a well known tourist destination.

SPLIT

Place of embarkation

Step inside Diocletian's Palace. Visit Cathedral of St. Dujė (Saint Dominus), Peristyle, the monument of Grgur Ninski created by the famous Croatian sculptor Ivan Mestrovic. Don't miss to touch his thumb and make a wish!

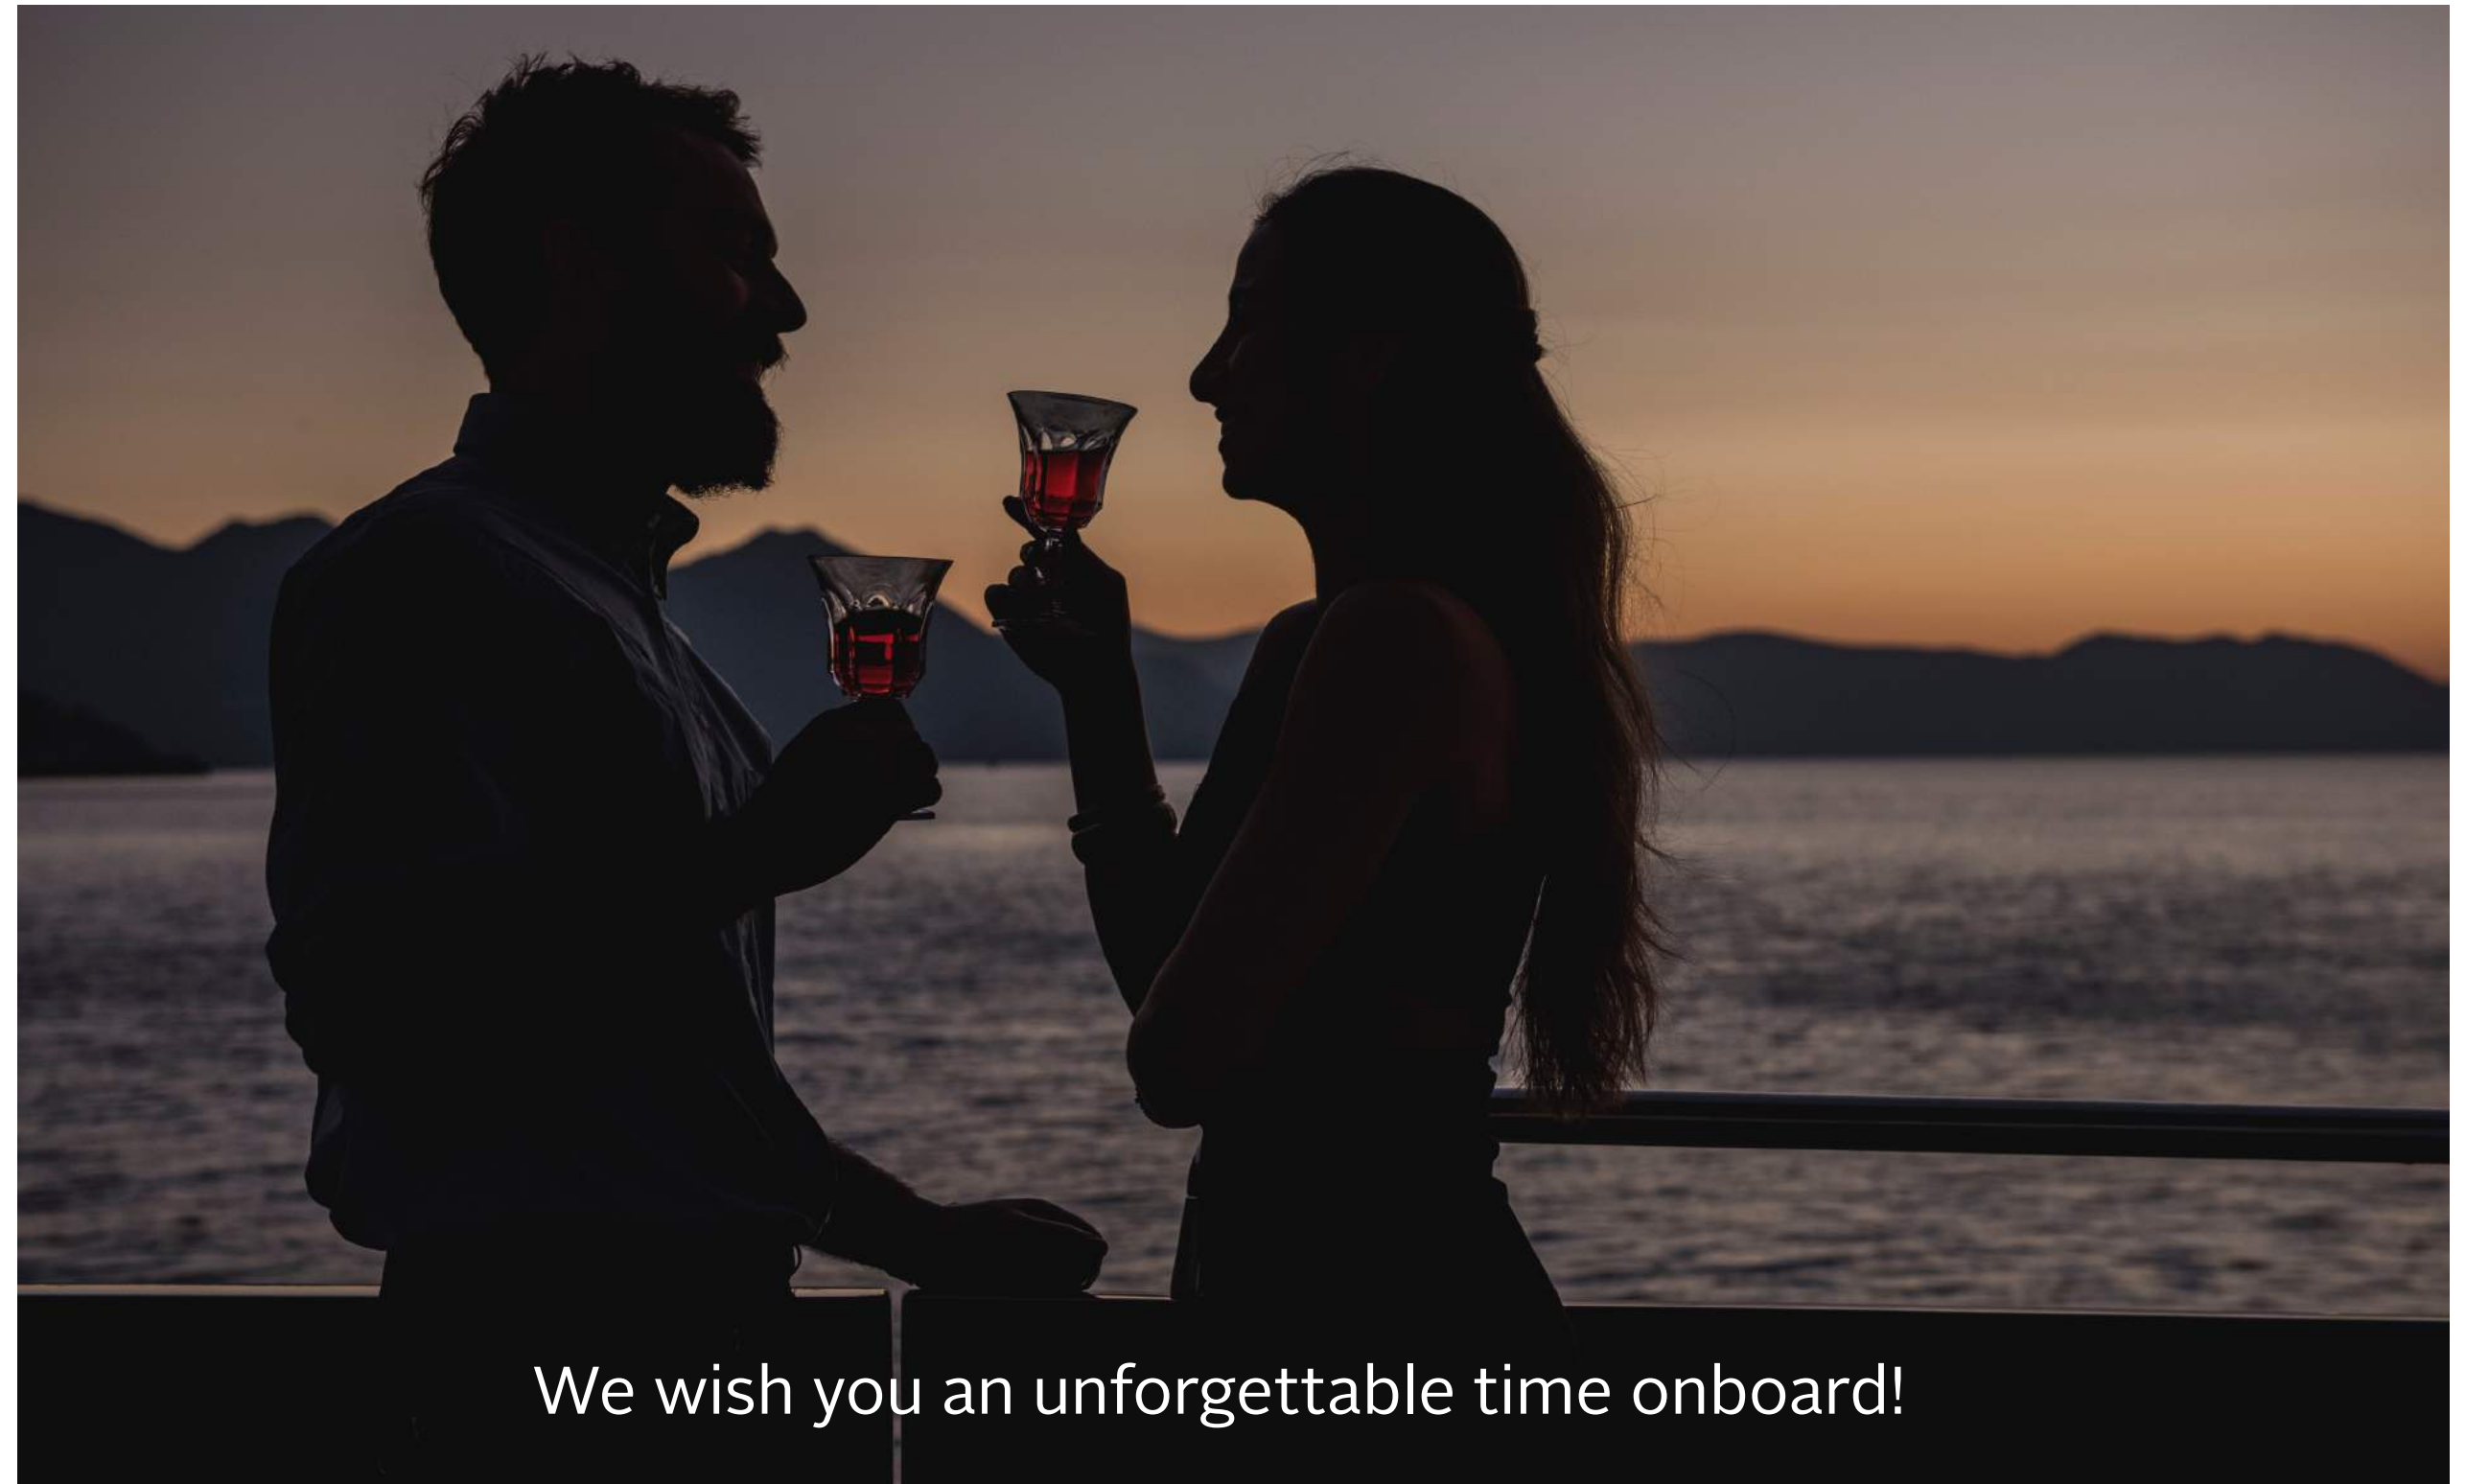

Split is the second-largest city in Croatia and the largest city on the Adriatic coast. It is a great place to experience the Dalmatian lifestyle. Always buzzing, this exuberant city has just the right balance of tradition and modernity. This lively city is worth a visit and you're bound to end up here at some point while exploring Croatia.

The proposed itinerary is just a suggestion. The beauty of a private charter is the ability to change your 'course' daily, as long as your embarkation and disembarkation port remain as per the Charter Agreement.

We wish you an unforgettable time onboard!
